

YES adds Becker Avionics Inc. to a growing list of clients

23 OCT 2009- Coppell, Texas -- Professional events planning and communications company, Your Event Solutions (YES) has announced they have been retained by avionics technology leader, Becker Avionics, Inc., the U.S. subsidiary of Becker Avionics, International. Becker, a German based company with offices located in Miramar, FL, is a privately held high-tech company that develops, manufactures and distributes the latest communications, navigation, surveillance and search & rescue equipment for airborne and ground applications. YES will provide exhibit management, event planning and support, media & advertising management and other professional communications and marketing services to Becker Avionics, including the debut of a new trade show booth at the Air Medical Transport Conference (AMTC) in San Jose, CA.

Speaking from Coppell Texas, president and owner, Ms. Kelley Parlier commented, “Becker represents the type of flagship company that YES specializes in representing and we are delighted to add them to our growing list of clients.” Parlier, a licensed pilot, holds degrees in Communications and Aviation Services from the University of North Dakota. After identifying a market need for professional trade show planning and management, Parlier formed the company in 2006 to provide these and other services. Clients include aviation related companies, healthcare groups, professional contractors, and service related companies, among others.

Your Event Solutions will be handling full service exhibit management services and support for Becker Avionics, Metro Aviation, REBTECH, Night Flight Concepts at the upcoming AMTC in San Jose, California from 26 to 28 October.
